

IN CELEBRATION OF PRESIDENTS' DAY 2008

J. F. Bodtke

No. 2208 Patented Oct. 24, 1865.

*James F. Bodtke of Madison, Wisconsin DES.2208
Letters Patent No. 2208 – Dated Oct. 24, 1865
Design for an Emblematic Picture*

The schedule referred in these Letters Patent and making part of the same.

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, James F. Bodtke of Madison, in the County of Dane, and State of Wisconsin, have invented a new and Improved Design for an Emblematic Picture; and I do hereby declare that the following is a full, clear, and exact description of the same, reference being had to the accompanying drawing forming part of the specification.

This emblematic design shows in the foreground two figures of personages standing side by side, one of whom illustrates the illustrious Washington, "Father of his Country;" the other figure represents the Liberator, Abraham Lincoln, "Saviour of his Country."

The right hand of the figure of Washington is represented as resting upon the end of a book which stands upon an ornamental and draped table.
